

In Memoriam

Subhendu Chakraborty 65 ME

Date of Death (September 20, 2021)

Subhendu (aka Bichhu) passed away at his Kolkata home leaving behind his wife Nibedita and a daughter. He was suffering from a rare neurological disease [Prion- CJD variant] that was diagnosed at a very late stage and has no cure or any effective treatment.

Subhendu was a brilliant student who studied at the Presidency College and secured 3rd place in the I. SC exam. He was one of the six (6) students who were in the top ten (10) list of I. SC exam that opted for and enrolled in BE College in 1961 (class of 1965), a rare reminder and recognition of the glory and appeal of the institution at the time.

He came from a highly educated family. His father was a revered, well known professor and Head of the English Department at Asutosh College in Kolkata.

Subhendu was a jovial character in the college campus with an endless stock of jokes often delivered with his unique patented style of "Bharat Twistyam". He was a natural entertainer and a talented actor. He together with another deceased classmate of ours Ranabir (Ram) Ghosh staged many hilarious dramas in the campus to the utter delight of the audience.

Subhendu spent most of his successful professional life in the Delhi Metro area and returned to Kolkata in later years.

Our sincere condolence and prayers for the family.

May his soul rest in peace!
