Name: Bankim Mallick, CE 1959

Date of Death: October 23, 2021

With deep sorrow we are letting you know that Mr. Bankim Mallick (our Mallick da or Bankim da) passed away peacefully on Saturday, October 23rd afternoon in his residence at Tacoma, Washington. Mallick da was one of the earliest Bengali in Seattle, arrived in 1969. He was a graduate of IEST (Erstwhile BE College), 1959, CE and Imperial College, London. He was well liked by all who knew him. He was a quiet, soft-spoken person who did not hesitate to help anyone anytime. Mallick da and his wife Banasree (Putul di) were ardent supporters and members of Uttoron of Seattle for many years. They attended all the Uttoron functions while he was in good health. They also attended BE College reunions and other social gatherings. He is survived by his wife, daughter, son-in-law and three wonderful grandkids.

On behalf of the Bengali Community in greater Seattle we bid him a fond farewell. We offer our sincerest condolences to his family. May his soul rest in peace.
