

In Memoriam

Name: Basab Mukherjee, EE 1976

Date of Death: March 21, 2022

With deep sorrow we are letting you know that Basab Mukherjee passed away on 21/03/2022 peacefully at his own residence, in USA, being surrounded by his family and friends.

He is remembered by everyone knows him as a genuine, loving, friendly and intelligent person.

Basab Mukherjee was born and raised in Asansol and Kolkata, India before he came to USA.

He completed his post-secondary academic education and training in Shibpur B.E. College, W.B.; BIT, India; Columbia University, N.Y.; Louisiana State University, Louisiana and University of Southern Mississippi to secure two Masters in Engineering and one in computer science.

He worked as an aerospace engineer with different concerns of NASA in USA and was rewarded with Astronaut's award.

In India he also worked for DCPL and M. N. Dastur company for a brief period right after graduating from B E College.

He was an avid reader of books on philosophy, science and literature of both the Eastern and Western educators. His favorite great men were Einstein, Rabindranath and Swami Vivekananda. He was never weary of reciting from their works.

He was married to Dr. Shampa Acharya Mukerji and became a proud father of two children, Aheli Saloka Mukerji (Microbiologist) and Amalin Mukerji (Electrical Engineer). He has also left two younger brothers back in India.

He lived a short but satisfied life overall. We believe his kind and gentle soul is resting in eternal peace.

On behalf of GAABESU We offer our sincerest condolences to his family. May his soul rest in peace.
